

OAK MOSS

- Grows on trees
- Is a lichen
- Find near Fir and Pine trees
- Used in perfume
- Native dye

Evernia prunastri

OREGON GRAPE

- Edible berries
- Native Food/Plant
- Yellow flowers
- Use stem for dye
- Sharp holly leaves

*Mahonia
aquifolium*

SALAL

- Edible berries
- Bell flowers
- Smooth, oval leaves
- Likes some shade
- Native Food/Plant

Gaultheria shallon

RED HUCKLEBERRY

- Edible berries
- Grows on stumps, often
- Pink flowers
- Native Food/Plant

Vaccinium parvifolium

FIRE WEED

- Pink Flowers
- Long, thin pods
- Fluff in pod
- Native Weaving/Food Plant

*Chamaenerion
angustifolium*

STINGING NETTLE

- Ridged leaves
- Grow fast
- Rash or pain if touched
- Native weaving, food, cords, medicine

Urtica dioica

SWORD FERN

- Loves rain
- Lives on forest floor
- Native Plant
- Spores under leaf
- Long, thin fronds

Polystichum munitum

LADY FERN

- Yellow-green
- Likes wet woodlands
- Native Plant
- Spores under leaf
- Feather-like fronds

Athyrium filix-femina

WESTERN RED CEDAR TREE

- Flakey, red outer bark
- Pliable, moist inner bark
- Many Native uses
- Insect repellent

Thuja plicata

HORSE TAIL

- Stores water
- Can eat part of young plant
- Like wet ground
- Tuber growing
- Scouring stem

Equisetum arvense

DOUGLAS FIR

- One of tallest trees on earth
- Tips used for tea/food
- Big cones
- Native PNW
- Pine family

*Pseudotsuga
menziesi*